

A one-day seminar providing a comprehensive review of the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Regulation C.

A full-day seminar providing a comprehensive review of the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Regulation C. Whether you are new to HMDA or have been reporting for years, you will receive benefits from this seminar's practical, "real world" approach to HMDA compliance.

HMDA poses challenges to both novice and experienced reporters. With increased regulatory scrutiny of HMDA data for fair lending purposes and the potential penalties associated with technical errors, it is crucial for an institution's HMDA data gathering and reporting process to be precise.

This Mastering HMDA seminar provides a comprehensive discussion of the regulation and explanations of common errors and violations. The seminar provides the attendee the opportunity to get practical answers to their recurring questions.

Learn how the CFPB's final rule is changing HMDA! Hear how the changes and implementation phases will impact the institutions and transactions covered, the information required to be collected and recorded, and the processes for reporting and disclosing that data.

The Manual

Attendees receive a detailed seminar manual with narrative explanations of regulatory requirements. The manual is an excellent resource for future reference.

Who Should Attend

Anyone involved in HMDA data collection and/or reporting will benefit from this program. Loan processors, trainers, compliance officers, and auditors will also find this seminar to be informative. No advance preparation is required.
