COMMUNITY BANKERS ASSOCIATION OF KANSAS MEMBERS RECEIVE SPECIAL DISCOUNT PRICING - SEE PAGE 2 FOR DETAILS

What You Will Learn

This program is designed for compliance professionals and supervisors as well as those new to the Community Reinvestment Act. The underlying purpose and background of CRA helps to put compliance and regulatory issues in perspective for those responsible for CRA programs. Also covered are technical rules for small, intermediate and large banks, and factors taken into account by examiners in assessing CRA performance. The potential repercussions related to consequences of a "needs-to-improve" or "substantial noncompliance" rating are also addressed in practical terms.

The program covers CRA requirements for small, intermediate-to-small, and large banks. Examination preparation is emphasized, along with best practices for managing your CRA examination in the current regulatory environment. Community development, the lending, investment and services tests and peer comparisons are covered as well as the necessity of taking a proactive approach to performance context.

What Attendee's Are Saying

"I attend several PBS seminars annually because i feel all the material is explained easily so it could be understood even by newbies from any financial institution. I always come back with something new and it can be a refresher course for others. Rules and regs are constantly changing and it is nice to be able to have PBS to rely on with all changes and any upcoming changes."
